

Greetings:

McNaughton Development is offering private showings by appointment during the pendency of the Illinois stay-home order. Real estate services, including showing, buying, and selling real estate (and travel related to that service) is Essential under the stay-home order, and therefore exempt.

For the protection of our employees and our prospective customers, the following procedures will be utilized to schedule a private showing appointment:

1. Make contact with the builder/builder's broker by telephone or e-mail requesting (1) a particular date and time for your private showing appointment, and (2) identify the property or properties you are interested in viewing.
2. Once an appointment is scheduled, our salesperson or designated agent will meet you at the residence. We will wait in the sales office while you tour the beautifully built McNaughton Development home. Please take your time and notice all the special features the home has to offer.
3. If you have any questions about the home, please converse with our salesperson or designated agent after your tour is complete, or simply call or e-mail with any questions.
4. If you wish to contract for the purchase and sale of a home, please call or e-mail our salesperson or designated agent, and all documentation can be processed by e-mail.

Thank you for your interest in buying a McNaughton home. Hopefully we will be back to normal hours in a few weeks.

Sincerely,
The McNaughton's and Team
